

Doha Shopping Guide

Typically, most malls in Doha are open from 10am - 10pm Saturday through Thursday. Most will be closed on Friday mornings but will open up during the evening, when they'll be the most crowded. Also, be aware that some malls schedule "Family Days", where single men will be turned away at the door. These air-conditioned malls are spacious, well-decorated and a welcome refuge from the heat outdoors. Most have cafés, fast food outlets, food courts, restaurants, cineplexes, childrens areas and amusement arcades. Doha Shopping Malls Guide

Landmark

Lagoona Mall

In a region that's becoming accustomed to world-class shopping avenues and boulevards, Lagoona in Qatar's capital city Doha, stands out with its unique air of timeless elegance. With a new philosophy in style & structure... unhurried, unforced, unparalleled.

Lagoona's glamorous up market retailers and restaurants enable it to transcend the sense of being a mere shopping destination, into the realm of a sophisticated lifestyle experience. The Mall

The Mall Shopping Complex gave Qatar its first experience of a shopping mall. Opened in October 1997, the Doha public lovingly called it "The Mall", giving it a generic meaning and thereby implying as to what a shopping mall should indeed be.

Ten years after its debut and with the addition of many new and bigger malls to the Doha horizon, The Mall still retains its charm as "the ultimate family destination";

Royal Plaza

Royal Plaza is a stylish shopping mall located in Doha, Qatar in the Middle East. Shopping with style, Royal Plaza's catch phrase offers 105 boutiques on three retail levels.

The design and development of the mall was created using essential ingredients that would shape a facility with a sense of elegance and comfort. The practical floor layouts permit visitors to walk about each level with ease. Royal Plaza was designed to present two distinct moods. The day experience permits visitors to enjoy the sun which shimmers through a main central skylight and eight secondary skylights. During the twilight hours, the artificial illumination produces another experience that is warm and tranquil.

Salam Plaza

Department stores carrying a wide range of upmarket merchandise.

Villaggio Mall

Villaggio is one of the most sought after destination in Qatar for top-of-the-line luxury brands, from Louis Vitton, Christian Dior and Gucci to Prada, Versace and Dolce & Gabbana. Its Venetian-style interiors combines with an astonishing range of shopping, dining and entertainment avenues to make it one of the unique malls in Qatar.

Souqs

(Traditional Market) While the compulsive shopper may be lured by the city's malls stocking designer fashion labels, accessories, electronics, watches and perfumes, it is the souqs that should be visited to experience true Qatari culture. Souqs have been an integral part of Qatari life for centuries and often serve a dual purpose as markets and preferred meeting places. Souq Waqif

Souq Waqif

Souq Waqif is an important souq located in the heart of Doha, literally translated to "standing market". This shopping destination is renowned for selling traditional garments, spices, handicrafts, and souvenirs. It is also home to dozens of restaurants serving cuisines from all over the world, as well as shisha lounges. Although this market dates back at least a hundred years, it has been recently restored back to its original glory. Thousands of people from across the region frequent this market to purchase traditional goods such as wool, traditional thobes, jewelry, and perfumes. Souq Waqif is within walking distance from Doha Corniche, became a hotspot for art galleries and workshops, hosting several art galleries and events. It also hosts local concerts during the holiday seasons.

Souq Waqif

Omani Souq

Another souq worth visiting is the Omani Souq on Haloul Street, parallel to Salwa Road. There you can buy things like spices, incense and woven baskets. Next door is a vegetable market.
